Fishing In the Neighborhood (FIN) Coach Internship -

This is a position for an energetic person who enjoys working with children and adults in the outdoors. An ideal candidate has had coursework in natural resources, education, or social work and is eager to introduce people to their local fishing opportunities. FIN opens the door for young anglers to learn a lifetime sport and provide a healthy outlet at a critical point in their lives. Coupled with the Fishing for Dinner initiative, it also introduces families and young adults to an inexpensive activity that connects them with nature, each other, and a healthy, sustainable source of food.

Hours & Duration: Average 40 hours/week
Duration depends on candidates' academic calendars
Approximately May 14 through August 29, 2017
Begin no later than May 21 and end no earlier than August 17

Pay: $3800.00 Stipend, minus taxes

Application Deadline: February 16, 2018

Number of Positions: up to 8

Locations: Green Bay, Bay Beach Wildlife Sanctuary (2 positions)
Milwaukee, Urban Ecology Center (2 position)
Milwaukee, Wehr Nature Center (2 positions)
Madison, Site to be determined (2 positions)

Intern will be payrolled through the partner organization.
